Eva Ng to Announce Candidacy for Saint Paul Mayor

Saint Paul, Minnesota, April 2, 2009 – Eva Ng, a 50-year old center-right conservative woman from Saint Paul, will be announcing her candidacy for the Saint Paul Mayoral race at a special event on Friday, April 3, 2009. The event will be held from 5:00 to 8:00 pm at the historic James J. Hill House located at 240 Summit Avenue in Saint Paul.

Eva has a vision for the City of Saint Paul and recognizes that many others share her vision of success, safety and growth for the residents and businesses of Saint Paul. After a 30-year successful career with Fortune 100 corporations and as a turnaround consultant for more than 20 different small to mid-sized companies, she is ready to put her business insight into service by dealing with the city's financial challenges. Eva is currently the CEO of Blanda, Inc., which has survived and even thrived in a declining US manufacturing environment.

"I know I have the experience and skills to truly be an effective Mayor of Saint Paul. I have never aspired to run for office, but I think it is time to apply what I have learned for public good. I am proud of Saint Paul. I would consider it an honor and look forward to this opportunity to serve my friends, neighbors, fellow residents, and the business community. They want new solutions and new ideas for old problems. They deserve leadership who brings the substance to deliver without increased taxation as the only cure," says Eva Ng.

Eva is of Chinese descent, and was born in Hong Kong twelve years after her parents escaped communist China as orphans. Her family moved to the United States when Eva was 10 years old, and she has seized every opportunity that America has had to offer her ever since.

Believing that everyone deserves access to her as a candidate for Saint Paul Mayor, Eva has provided ample time for people to meet with her during the Cocktail Reception that will follow the announcement on Friday evening.

Tours of the James J. Hill house are also being offered to guests and will be hosted by staff members of the Minnesota Historical Society before and after the official announcement.

NOTE: Representatives from the media will have private access to Eva Ng from 5:15 to 5:45 pm in the Library. The Library is located to the right of the main entrance.
